ADVICE OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY

Private Counsel Is Always Recommended For Legal Matters

The law allows any person to represent themselves in a legal action. However, filing an action with the court and representing yourself in the courtroom can be a complicated legal procedure and this packet does not attempt to address all the legal issues involved in bringing your matter before the court. This packet is created to help you access the legal system without the assistance of an attorney.

When representing yourself, you are responsible for understanding the law that governs your case and for filing the proper legal documents. The laws and rules are set out in the Nevada Revised Statutes, The Rules of Civil Procedure, and the local rules governing the jurisdiction in which you are filing your documents.

When you sign these documents and present them for filing with the court, it is assumed by the court that you have carefully read the documents, that you understand all the terms in the documents, that you agree with all the provisions in the documents, and that you are aware of all the consequences those provisions may produce.

Before filling in any portion of the following documents, read all the materials included in this packet including the definitions of terms

THIS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED AS A COURTESY ONLY. THE COURT, SELF-HELP CENTER, NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION, OR LAW LIBRARY THAT MAY PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ERRORS CONTAINED HEREIN OR FOR DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FURNISHINGS OF THIS MATERIAL.

SOME DEFINITIONS and EXPLANATIONS OF TERMS USED IN FAMILY CASES WITH CHILDREN

The following definitions and explanations are only to be used as general guidance. In no way are they intended to cover all the legal significance and importance of the terms. You are advised to seek a full explanation of the terms, definitions, and explanations from a private attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada.

Alimony or Spousal Support: Alimony, or Spousal Support, is the amount paid to one spouse by the other for a period of time after the marriage is over, usually to assist the spouse in being able to maintain a lifestyle to which that spouse is accustomed, until that spouse can get back on firm financial footing. Spousal support may be for a limited amount of time, such as months or years, or may be permanent such as for a lifetime or until remarriage, whichever occurs first. If the spouse that is receiving support remarries, unless otherwise agreed upon, the spousal support stops. There is no formula for spousal support and either party may receive spousal support. The factors governing spousal support are complicated and if you have any questions regarding spousal support, they should be discussed with a private attorney.

Assets: Generally, anything acquired or purchased during the time of the marriage is considered a community asset and, therefore, community property, and it usually does not matter if one name is on the property or both names are on the property. Nevada is a community property State and the law in Nevada is that community assets are equally divided at the time of a divorce. There are some exceptions, and those should be discussed with a private attorney. The term “community assets” includes: the income of both parties during the marriage and anything purchased with either income, any interest acquired in real property, any retirement funds earned during the marriage, vehicles purchased during the marriage (even if in only one name), furniture purchased during the marriage, etc. In many cases, it does not matter in whose name these things are purchased. Sole and separate property is not usually considered community property unless it was given as a gift to the community or the community has acquired an interest in it in another way. If one party wastes community assets or gives community assets away without the other party’s knowledge or consent, that party may have to reimburse the community for the wasting of assets. If there is a question of wasted assets, those should be discussed with a private attorney.

Community Property: Any assets acquired or purchased during the marriage are usually considered “community property” no matter whose name they are in. That is the starting point for the division of property of the marriage. Nevada is a community property State and it is the law that the division of community property start with an equal division. However, there are important deviations and exceptions to equal community property distribution. See “Assets” above. A private attorney should be consulted regarding division and distribution of community property.

Debts: Generally, any bills or debts acquired during the marriage are considered community debts and are equally divided at the time of the divorce. There are exceptions. Debts that are incurred for such things as gambling or for purchasing things that are not for the benefit of the community may be considered sole and separate debts. Such debts should be discussed with a private attorney.

- Petitioner: A party that starts or “brings” an action against another party. Also known as the Plaintiff, depending upon what kind of an action is filed. If the action is a Joint Petitioner, such as a Joint Petition for Divorce or a Joint Petitioner to Establish Custody and Visitation, both parties are called “petitioners”, rather than Plaintiff and Defendant.
- Residency Requirement: One of the “Petitioners” must be a resident of the State of Nevada and that person is known as the “resident petitioner”. In order to establish residence in the State of Nevada, that person must have physically lived and physically been here in the State for at least six (6) weeks immediately prior to filing the Joint Petition. If both people are residents of the State of Nevada, only one is actually designated as the “resident petitioner” for purposes of the filling out and filing of the Affidavit of Resident Witness Form. The parties cannot automatically agree to waive the jurisdiction issue.
- Resident Petitioner: The Petitioner, or party, on whose behalf the Affidavit of Resident Witness is going to be filed. If both Petitioners are residents, only one will be the “Resident Petitioner”.
- Resident Witness: A person that will swear in the Affidavit of Resident Witness that one of the Petitioners has been physically present in the State of Nevada for a period of at least six (6) weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Joint Petition. The Resident Witness may be a friend, a family member, or a co-employee.
- Sole and Separate Property: Sole and separate property are those things Husband and Wife owned prior to the marriage, and it may also include a personal injury settlement received during the marriage by one of the parties, if the proceeds were kept entirely separate from the community. Sole and separate property remains the property of the individual who owned it prior to the marriage. There are exceptions, such as a home or other real property. The community may acquire an interest in a home or real property during the time of the marriage even if it belonged to one party prior to the marriage. If there is a question regarding such an interest, and what percentage the community may have acquired, you are urged to see a private attorney.

11. Complete all information, but do not sign or date the document.

12. Submit the original Decree or Order and two copies to the Court Clerk, who will give them to the Judge. IF the Order or Decree is signed, a file-stamped copy will be mailed to you if you have provided a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
